

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Concentration: Health Services Administration

ADVANCE YOUR CAREER IN HEALTH CARE

National Louis University's Master of Business Administration with a concentration in Health Services Administration combines the strength of the MBA curriculum with specialized coursework in health care policy and trends, health law and ethics, and business operations of health care organizations.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Flexible Classes

Choose from campus-based, online, and blended (online courses with face-to-face meetings) formats.

Health Services Expertise

Learn about developing trends in health services from faculty with real-world experience in the health care industry.

Partnership Scholarship

Partnering with NLU comes with benefits. Take advantage of your partnership employee discount. Cohorts forming Fall 2021!

COURSE LIST

With a blend of business and health administration coursework, you will maximize your potential as an expert in the fast evolving health care field.

- Health Care Origins, Policies, and Trends
- Ethical and Legal Issues in Health Care Administration
- Health Care Business Operations
- Graduate Management Foundations
- Leadership and Organizational Behavior
- Managerial Economics
- Macroeconomics
- Managerial Accounting
- Financial Markets
- Financial Management
- Strategic Marketing
- Strategic Management
- Technology and Leadership

Contact: Tracy Tomasetti at Tracy.Tomasetti@nl.edu | 312.261.3018

