

Sean T. O'Grady, FACHE
President, North Region & Institutes
NorthShore – Edward-Elmhurst Health

Sean O'Grady serves as President, North Region & Institutes for NorthShore – Edward-Elmhurst Health (NS-EEH). Sean is responsible for leading Legacy NorthShore Hospitals & Institutes, Nursing, and NorthShore Medical Group operations while working with Swedish Hospital and Northwest Community Healthcare leadership to advance the strategic objectives of the North Region of NS-EEH. Sean most recently served as Chief Operating Officer of NorthShore and President, NorthShore Glenbrook Hospital. He began his NorthShore career in 2007 as Vice President, NorthShore Medical Group. Prior to joining NorthShore, Sean worked at The Shirley Ryan Ability Lab (formerly the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago) as Vice President, Operations, and in various administrative positions in St. Louis at Barnes-Jewish Hospital, a member of BJC Health System. He completed the David A. Gee Administrative Fellowship at The Jewish Hospital of St. Louis in 1994. Sean earned a bachelor's degree from Bradley University ('91) and a master's degree in Hospital and Health Administration from The University of Iowa ('93). He and his wife, Buggie, reside in Northfield, Illinois and have four children.