

Sonja Williams has over 20 years of experience in Human Resources and Talent Acquisition. She began her career at Epson computers as a Sales Trainer and ultimately transitioned her skills to the area of HR Leadership Training at Nextel/Sprint. While there, she facilitated Behavioral Interviewing, Coaching, Diversity, Performance and Time Management workshops.

During her career she has worked in both not for profit as well as for profit companies such as National City/PNC Bank, The Gap organization, Concentra, and Viant. For the past 12 years, she has been a part of a large HR department, with the most recent role on the Leadership Talent Management team as a Strategic Sourcing Specialist.

Sonja has a passion to impact the lives of others through her work. It's not just about hiring a person for a job; it's about helping to change a life. Recruitment provides a great opportunity to not only meet new people, but to take advantage of every opportunity to learn through listening. Sonja holds a BA in Marketing from Columbia College, Chicago, and holds an MBA in Human Resource Management from Dominican University, River Forest, IL.
